ABOUT THE SEMINAR

In order to meet evolving market needs and public expectation, the Office of the Commissioner of Insurance has made major progress in its regulatory reforms including the establishment of the Independent Insurance Authority and consideration of introducing a Policyholders' Protection Fund. It has also commenced a review in our capital and solvency regime with a view to developing a new risk-based capital regime for Hong Kong in the next few years. In the seminar, the Commissioner, Ms Annie Choi, will talk about the major regulatory reforms introduced as well as those in the pipeline.
