Warren McGregor was appointed to the International Accounting Standards Board in January 2001. Before joining the Board, he was a founding Director of Stevenson McGregor, a boutique accounting practice specialising in financial reporting and accounting standards.

Prior to that, he was for 10 years the Chief Executive Officer of the Australian Accounting Research Foundation (AARF), the body that until 30 June 2000 was responsible for providing technical support to the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) in the development of Australian Accounting Standards.

From 1983 to 1999, he attended meetings of the IASC as Technical Adviser to the Australian delegation. He was Chairman of the IASC's Insurance Steering Committee.

Warren was a founding member of the G4+1 Group of national accounting standard setters.

Tatsumi Yamada was appointed to the International Accounting Standards Board in January 2001. Until his appointment, he was a Partner of ChuoAoyama Audit Corporation (PricewaterhouseCoopers), Japan. He was also a member of the Business Accounting Deliberation Council and the Financial System Council on Insurance subcommittee.

In addition he was a member of the Executive Committee of the IASC and a member of the Japanese delegation at the Board of IASC.

Mr Yamada represented Japan on the Financial Instruments Joint Working Group of Standard Setters and was a member of the former IAS 39 Implementation Guidance Committee.

In 1990-3, he was seconded to Corporation Finance Research Institute (COFRI), as manager in charge of Research and Development of Financial Accounting Standards, which involved a working knowledge of International Accounting Standards, US GAAP and UK Financial Reporting Standards. Previously he had worked for the Sumitomo Corporation in Japan and the UK.

Elizabeth Hickey is Director of Technical Activities at the International Accounting Standards Board, which is based in London.

Her earlier professional career includes 15 years as technical partner for a major accounting firm in New Zealand. She was chairman of the Financial Reporting Standards Board of New Zealand, and a member of the New Zealand Securities Commission.
