© 2021 | Published: December 2020

Singapore shines as a beacon of hope for people from all over the region to build their ventures in the domains of finance and technology. This book covers the liberalization of financial services, the establishment of regional hubs, and the embracement of FinTech innovation.

This book aspires to bring together stories and journeys of founders along with the enablers of the ecosystem. It will show how access to capital, customers, the talent pool, and policy initiatives have led to success. It aims to inspire the next generation of founders to build their ventures to bring technology to the masses and improve the lives of billions.

本書涵蓋了金融服務的自由化，區域中心的建立以及金融科技創新的應用。如何以資金，顧客，人才和政策達至成功，和啟發下一代以技術推向大眾並改善我們的生活。
