About the competition

- The competition is divided into two categories: Cha-Cha and Waltz at the "beginner" level. A dancer can join either one category or both.
- The competition is open to all dancers who have not competed in competitions or participated in any dance examinations for the category that they enter.
- There is no fixed choreography or syllabus.
- This is a duo contest. A couple of same sex is also eligible to join the competition. However, one of the dancers must be a member of HKICPA. A dancer can pair-up with a different partner competing in a different category.
- Judges will look for posture; timing; line; hold; poise; musicality and expression; foot and leg action; lead and follow and floor craft.
- The duration of each dance is approximately 2 minutes.
- The competition takes place at the Dance Fun Night on 1 October and results are announced the same evening. First, second and third place are awarded with trophies.
- Deadline for entry is 9 September, 2011.
- No entry fee is required.
- The competition will be cancelled if there are less than 5 entries. If the number exceeds 5, the competition will be divided into preliminary and final rounds all taken place in the same evening.
