On 11 August 2016, finalist teams of the accounting and business management case competition 2015-2016 and a group of secondary school students visited International Housewares Retail Company Limited (JHC), the selected company for case study in the competition. The visit is part of the learning activities followed by the competition. In addition to a visit to the JHC's headquarter, participating students had an opportunity to join a guided tour to its concept shop and warehouse as well so as to understand the business operation of a company in real life.
