

HKICPA seminar: The Power of Positive Relationship (re-run)

Programme Code: S150414S

Having a positive relationship with your stakeholders at work may likely be the single most essential asset you ought to have in your professional career. Interestingly, networking is perceived as one of the most overlooked skills by managers and accounting professionals. Networking helps you proactively connect yourself with other people and expand your social circle for career development.

This seminar focuses on exploring your need to network and developing different approaches to sharpening your networking mindset and ability.
