

PAIB forum: "Future CFO's DNA" – 24 October 2015

Panel discussion:

Challenges facing PAIBs

Profile of panelist

Richard Tse

Executive Director, Finance
West Kowloon Cultural District
Authority

Richard Tse is Executive Director, Finance of West Kowloon Cultural District Authority (WKCD), responsible for formulating financial and investment strategies, and monitoring the overall financial sustainability of the development, operation and management of the District.

Richard has extensive experience in finance and accounting, operation management, business development, corporate planning and governance areas in both commercial and public sectors. Prior to joining WKCD, he served as Vice President, Finance and Corporate Services of Hong Kong Science and Technology Parks Corporation. He previously held various senior finance and management positions within Jardine Matheson Group and worked for Ernst & Young at its Hong Kong and Sydney offices.

Richard is a Council member of Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (HKICPA), and is the Chairman of its Qualifications and Education Board. He holds a Bachelor and Master degree of Commerce from the University of New South Wales, Australia. He is also a fellow member of HKICPA, the Institute of Chartered Accountants Australia and the Hong Kong Institute of Chartered Secretaries.