About the programme

In line with the Bridge Interest Group's year plan, the training course will focus on card play techniques for declarer. Declarer play is a major part of the game as you need to acquire the total number of tricks in order to fulfill the contract. The course will emphasize on the basic method.

Experienced players are encouraged to join this course for the purpose of practicing with their partners to prepare for future tournaments as it is vital to build up a common understanding and strategy. The training also provides a good opportunity to foster friendship among members and strengthen team spirit.

The time of the training course will be adequate for the play of 16 boards in a normal team event with opportunity to discuss/account for any particular result in the play with teammates and tutor.

If members without any knowledge of bridge wish to enrol in the course, please let us know in advance as we can try to form a novice group for separate training.
