Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants takes disciplinary action against two certified public accountants

(HONG KONG, 10 May 2013) — A Disciplinary Committee of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants reprimanded Leung Yiu Chung (membership number A28602) and Li Ka Chun, Ricky (membership number A25430) (collectively "respondents") on 8 May 2013 for their failure or neglect to observe, maintain or otherwise apply a professional standard issued by the Institute. In addition, the respondents were ordered to pay the costs of the disciplinary proceedings in the sum of HK$22,900.

Leung and Li are non-practising members of the Institute. The Institute received unsolicited promotional materials from a company owned by the respondents, in which the company offered to provide or held itself out as providing audit services. After considering the information available, the Institute lodged complaints against the respondents under section 34(1A) of the Professional Accountants Ordinance.

The Disciplinary Committee found, and by the respondents' admission, that they failed or neglected to observe, maintain or otherwise apply a professional standard issued by the Institute, namely the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants.

Having taken into account the circumstances of the case, the Disciplinary Committee made the above order against the respondents under section 35(1) of the ordinance.

Under the ordinance, if the respondents are aggrieved by the order, they may give notice of an appeal to the Court of Appeal within 30 days after they are served the order.

The order and findings of the Disciplinary Committee are available at the Institute's website under the "Compliance" section at www.hkicpa.org.hk.

Disciplinary proceedings of the Institute are conducted in accordance with Part V of the Professional Accountants Ordinance by a five-member Disciplinary Committee. The majority (three members) of each committee, including the chairman, are non-accountants chosen from a panel appointed by the Chief Executive of the HKSAR, and the other two members are CPAs.

Disciplinary hearings are held in public unless the Disciplinary Committee directs otherwise in the interests of justice. A hearing schedule is available at the Institute's website. A CPA who feels aggrieved by an order made by a Disciplinary Committee may appeal to the Court of Appeal, which may confirm, vary or reverse the order.

The Disciplinary Committees have the power to sanction members, member practices and registered students. Sanctions include temporary or permanent removal from membership or cancellation of a practising certificate, a reprimand, a penalty of up to $500,000, and payment of costs and expenses of the proceedings.
